Acknowledgments

Special thanks to those who provided assistance in the preparation of this report:

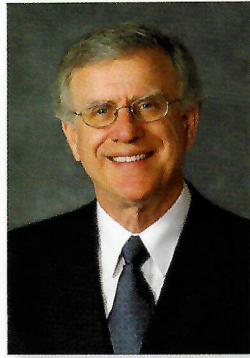

Scharmél Roussel, PHUMC Director of Communications
Pat Hunnicutt, PHUMC Foundation Assistant
Mike Simpson, Twin City Printing

Appreciation is expressed to Paul Bowen for the cover photograph of Rev. Vic Nixon, senior pastor, in the PHUMC sanctuary.

No operating budget funds were used in preparing this annual report, which has been completely funded by special contributions.

Dear PHUMC Family,

In these uncertain economic times most of us are looking at ways to cut back, save and conserve financially which, of course, is very wise. Investment and retirement portfolios have been substantially affected by the economic downturn, limiting resources available in the present and future. We are hopeful, but we do not know what the future holds financially.

Particularly, in times like these I am very thankful for PHUMC Foundation that continues to provide support for the church and its ministries and for the generosity of those who remembered the Foundation in their wills and with other gifts that keep on giving to benefit the church and its ministries. To paraphrase a line from the Book of Esther, "Who knows whether the Foundation has come to PHUMC for such a time as this?" Gifts to the Foundation matter all the time, but particularly in difficult financial times!

I am also grateful that my testamentary gift to PHUMC Foundation will not be determined by the condition of the economy. Whatever the size of my estate and whatever the economy, the Foundation will receive ten-percent. I can be generous regardless of the times! That realization in the present brings me a great deal of joy.

The most important realization, however, deals with the difference that PHUMC Foundation makes and will continue to make in the lives of men, women and children through the ministries of our church. Gifts provide dollars that translate into ministries that develop and grow faith in Jesus Christ for present and future generations. Ultimately, the Foundation is really about faces and faith.

I am very grateful to the Foundation board, to Director Rev. Lynn Lindsey and her assistant, Pat Hunnicutt, for their expertise and devotion – and for all of those whose gifts make a difference for faith in Christ.

Grace and Peace,

Victor H. Nixon

Dear PHUMC Family and Friends,

As Chair of the PHUMC Foundation, it gives me great pleasure to present to you the 2008 Annual Report. To say 2008 was a challenging year would be an understatement. However, it is during difficult economic times like these that we truly understand how blessed PHUMC is to have such a wonderful gift in the Foundation.

We were blessed in 2008 with over $240,000 in new contributions and 14 new additions to our Willing Friends Society (those remembering the church in their wills). It is through these current and future gifts that the PHUMC Foundation is able to support the church now and in perpetuity.

The purpose of the PHUMC Foundation, “to strengthen the ministries and mission of Pulaski Heights United Methodist Church through giving and endowment, enabling persons to grow in faith in Christ”, is evident now more than ever.

I am grateful for the opportunity to serve and work with such a generous church family.

God Bless,

Jay White

Chair, 2008-2009

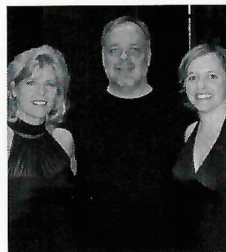

PHUMC Foundation Board of Directors

The Harrison Family Endowment honors family members. A generous gift from Sara Harrison, church member and church librarian, established an endowment to honor and remember members of her family. Many in the Harrison family have been active in PHUMC, including Rev. Fred Harrison, a former senior pastor.

The Hudson Family Endowment. "My small contribution is a help toward the continuation of God's work through our church", commented Joe Hudson shortly before his death several weeks later. Mr. Hudson was a former Board of Stewards and Finance Committee chair and members of his family served in numerous ways also.

"Divas and Desserts" was a smashing success for the third year. Again, Mary Ann Robinson, Julie Jackson, and Jim Maase sang their hearts out in "From Broadway with Love" to a delighted audience of over 350 members and guests. There was no charge for the event, but a love offering of $5,000 was collected for the Louis Sanders Music Endowment.

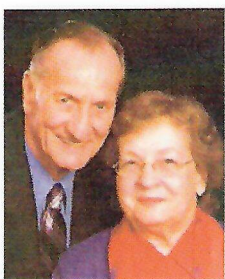

With a generous contribution from David and Martha Ann Fox, the Wenona C. Fox Endowment was established in her memory in March of 2008. Mrs. Fox was a founding teacher of the Streepey Fox Women's Sunday School Class, an important women's class for decades. She is pictured with her husband, Mr. Asa Fox.

Roselyn St. John contributed $5,000 in memory of her husband. Roselyn grew up in the church and met her husband, Wayne, at a sanctuary choir rehearsal. Because of her generosity, the future of the church that she has loved so long will be more secure.

The Cecil and Betty Malone Older Adult Ministry Endowment was made possible by a gift of $100,000 from the Malones, who have been actively involved in older adult ministries, including Helping Hands, Archives, Butler Upper Room Class, Primetimers, etc. Because of their love for PHUMC, this church can continue to minister to its beloved older members in the name of Jesus Christ.

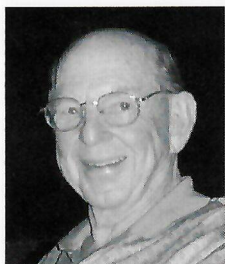

“Planned Gifts Benefit All” was the topic of a luncheon seminar sponsored by the Foundation on June 18 featuring Jim Argue, Jr., Director of the United Methodist Foundation of Arkansas. Jim presented Information about “win-win” gifts for both donor and charity.

Plans for charitable gift annuity have been made by Wanda Smith. In July of 2008, Wanda Smith designated PHUMC as recipient of an annuity at her death. During her lifetime, Wanda will receive excellent returns on her investment and tax incentives - and her beloved church will benefit when she joins the church triumphant.

The John Clement Baber Endowment came into being because of generous donations from family members and friends. This endowment is a part of the general endowment which is the “backbone” of the PHUMC Foundation. Because of these wonderful gifts, Dr. Baber, a beloved Little Rock physician, will be remembered forever.

A donation from Martha Frances Engstrom funded the Robert Allen Engstrom Endowment. Bobby Engstrom, an active member of PHUMC, was killed in a tragic automobile accident when he was in college. Because PHUMC meant so much to Bobby in his childhood and youth, Mrs. Engstrom wanted to help the church, while remembering her son in such a significant way.

“Let it be such work that our descendants will thank us ...”

enriched in every way for your great generosity.”

II COR. 9:11

George and Bess Campbell's gift of $10,000 established the Campbell Food Pantry Endowment. Feeding the hungry is a passion of the Campbells. Available income will go to strengthen this significant ministry that reaches out to the hungry in our community.

Estate gifts of $20,000 each from the estates of Joe and Sally Crowder endowed the Crowder Caring Ministry Endowment, which will support the PHUMC Caring Ministry. Joe and Sally were active in Stephen Ministry, Shepherd Ministry, and other aspects of the caring ministry program. Income from their endowment will strengthen this wonderful many-faceted program.

Lawrence Hamilton's music delighted the annual meeting of the Willing Friends in Wesley Hall in November. Willing Friends are church members who have designated the church in their wills, and they are honored each year by the PHUMC Foundation Board.

An estate gift of $20,000 from the estate of Vernon Giss established the Helen and Vernon Giss Endowment. Mr. and Mrs. Giss were former young adult Sunday School teachers and Mr. Giss served on the Finance Committee and Board of Stewards.

Dear Church Family,

I read a quote recently that made me think about the work of the PHUMC Foundation: “If I have seen further, it is by standing on the shoulders of giants.”

I believe this quote with all my heart. When I think about my own life, I have been able to see further...understand more...love more deeply...give more generously because I have stood on the shoulders of giants. These giants in my life certainly include my parents, Clay and Carrie Hansen, and my sister, Anne Hansen, who were devoted PHUMC members.

Many of the giants in my life were not biological family; but they were family, nevertheless - church family. These giants were Sunday School teachers who taught me about Jesus, pastors who preached the word, Christian educators, youth counselors, mission trip leaders, and the list goes on and on - people being the church, sharing the gospel and love of Jesus Christ.

Giving to the PHUMC Foundation helps ensure that the Christian story will be told to our children and grandchildren. The principal of each contribution remains intact and grows through the years to build a solid foundation for our church. Join us in making sure that our children have strong shoulders upon which to stand.

Blessings,

Lynn Lindsey
Executive Director
PHUMC Foundation
